HOMECOMING, FROSH RITES PLANNED

Sophs Set Freshman Init. Rules

The sophomore class met Tuesday, October 3, to plan freshman initiation. With everyone contributing, the program was planned as follows:

FRESHMAN INITIATION WEEK

Monday: Roll call, 6:30 a.m. in front of Campbell hall; roll call, 8:30 p.m., Monmouth park.

Tuesday: Roll call, 2 a.m. in front of PE building.

Wednesday: Roll call, 7:15 a.m. between Maple hall and Campbell hall. (Dress-up Day.)

Thursday: Roll call, 9 a.m. or 4 p.m., stadium (clean stadium.)

Friday: Assembly, CH auditorium, 11 a.m. Work on bonfire in afternoon.

Saturday: Roll call, 9 a.m., football field. Lime field and wrap goal posts.

DRESS-UP DAY REGULATIONS

Girls: Wear clashing sweater and skirt; skirt being just above the knees. Wear unmatched shoes. Wear one anklet and one long stocking; stocking rolled halfway down between knee and ankle. Do not put hair up the night before Dress-up Day and do not comb it that morning. Use no pins or clips except to hold Frosh ribbon which must be worn. Use no make-up.

Boys: Wear T-shirt with a tie and sports jacket. Roll one pant leg above knee and one halfway between knee and ankle. Wear unmatched shoes. Wear unmatched socks wrong side out. Find large rock or brick, wrap as a gift, and carry the entire day.

Both men and women: Wear name tags. Carry student handbooks. Speak to everyone while in the

Postl Home From European Tour

Mr. Anton Postl returned to OCE a little over a week ago after traveling in Europe since the end of the summer session. When interviewed about his trip, Mr. Postl gave these interesting highlights:

Mr. Postl went by plane to Minneapolis, New York, and Montreal; stopping briefly to visit friends at the University of Minnesota and in New York. From Montreal he traveled by train to Quebec and then by boat to Liverpool with a stop in Greenock, Scotland. He traveled from Liverpool to London by train and then on to Paris by plane.

The famous Airlberg Express then took him through Basel, Zurich, Innsbruck, and on to Graz, Austria, where he was born. Fifteen years had passed since he had been there. Besides visiting his mother and his brother and family, he visited at the University, the Teachers' College, and with a grade school teacher of his.

Mr. Postl spent a week hiking in the Alps near the Italian border and took a bus trip to the glacier of

Directory in Offing

Wolf Calls, a student-faculty directory edited annually by Sigma Epsilon Pi, is now being compiled and will soon be placed on sale, according to Gwen Stillwell, president. The home and school addresses, telephone numbers, and marital status of OCE student body members and also the addresses and phone numbers of the faculty members and supervising teachers will be included in this publication.

In order to keep the directory up to date, supplements listing data on the newly-enrolled students will be prepared and sold at the beginning of both winter and spring terms.

Student Post Office Ready For Mails

The long-awaited student post office boxes in Campbell hall are ready for use. Additional boxes were made during the summer to give every student his own box. The students' post office will be open whenever the building is open and students should check their boxes every day for their mail. It requires only a few minutes or a matter of seconds to take a glance at the boxes while going to or from classes.

The post office is for any and all correspondence. Letters may be addressed to the school in care of the P.O. box number.

Students should make use of the post office in every possible way by friendly greetings between students, personal notes, and other messages. Such a special function as this is of benefit to the entire student body.

Langley Joins Decker On Inactive List

OCE's mounting injury list claimed "Gorgeous Gus" Langley this last week. Langley, a defensive giant at his line-backer position, will be greatly missed by the Wolves' grid team. He received a broken cheek bone in the SOCE game, which the Wolves won by a lopsided score of 40-0. Gus has been a mainstay for Coach McArthur for the past two football seasons.

He joins Hank Decker who, with a broken left leg, will miss the remaining football games of the 1950 season. Both are seniors.

Homecoming plans are well under way and the Homecoming committee has worked out a full schedule for OCE's alumni.

Instructors To Talk Of Europe on KOAC

Impressions of Europe and the social and cultural forces at work in the Continental countries is the topic of the second broadcast in the new OCE series over radio station KOAC, in Corvallis.

To be aired Tuesday, October 10, at 7 p.m., the program will present Charles Noxon, OCE's geographer, who led a study tour of the Continent this past summer; Gloria Langdoc, one of the students on the tour, and Anton Postl, of OCE's science department. Mr. Postl visited his home in Austria for the first time in 15 years during the summer.

The broadcast will contrast the viewpoint of Mr. Noxon and Miss Langdoc, with its overall perspective, with Mr. Postl's closeup of one small section of a weak European nation caught in the middle between the East and West.

Government Clarifies Draft Call Situation

Some confusion has arisen regarding the action of local Selective Service board in relation to college and university students. Students pursuing full-time courses who receive their orders for induction while enrolled in an institution of higher education and who wish to postpone their entrance in the armed forces, should request postponement of induction, not deferment. Postponement for the academic year is mandatory upon the local board for all full-time students as the Selective Service Act of 1948 states:

"Any person who, while satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction at a college, university, or similar institution of learning is ordered to report for induction under this title, shall, upon the facts being presented to the local board, have his induction under this title postponed (A) until the end of such academic year or (B) until he ceases satisfactorily to pursue such course of instruction, whichever is the earlier."

The above information was received in Emergency Supplement No. 69, and was released October 2, 1950. All students who are eligible for the draft should remember to request a postponement of induction. This will permit them to finish the current academic year.

Transfers, Attention!

Any transfer student whose application forms for teacher training or supervised teaching are not complete, should check at the education office as soon as possible concerning his application. Applications will be held up in the "pending" file and cannot be sent to the committee for action until they are complete.

The key slogan for this year's big week-end is "Shake the Quakers."

For those who come early there will be the traditional freshman bonfire Friday night, followed by dancing in Maple hall. The time for the bonfire and rally is 7 p.m. and the rally dance is at 8:30 p.m.

Registration for alumni will start at 9 a.m. Saturday, October 14, in Maple hall. Following registration there will be a campus movie in Campbell hall auditorium at 10:30.

Lunches will be available at the Snack Bar in Maple hall. Sandwiches, doughnuts, pie, coffee, ice cream and soft drinks are on the menu.

Class get-togethers for the ten-year reunion groups are planned for the period between the annual business meeting and the football game.

The Homecoming game between George Fox college of Newberg and the OCE Wolves will be at 2 p.m. There will be half-time entertainment under the direction of John Robinson and an informal coffee hour in Maple hall will follow the game.

In the evening there will be a dance in the physical education building. The dance will be dressy-sport. The Castle Jazz Band is furnishing the music. Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to midnight.

The committees are working very hard and are doing a good job under the direction of John Shaffer. The house decorating committee is under the leadership of Andy Sandwick.

During the game and two days before it "mums" will be on sale along with Pom Poms. Mary Campynol is in charge with Helen Fonger as her assistant.

Try-Outs Scheduled For 3-Act Comedy

Try-outs for parts in the first student body play of the year, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, Oct. 10, after 3 p.m. in CH 116. The production is a three-act comedy adopted from the autobiography by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough. It relates the riotous adventures of two young girls, possessing an uncanny ability to get into embarrassing circumstances, who struck out on their own to see the world during the 1920's.

The cast includes eight parts for men and nine for women. George J. Harding, head of the drama department, has announced that try-outs will be conducted according to the following directions: Interested parties should bring their own script when trying out. This may be a cutting taken from their own material or from a play obtained in the library. It is preferable that those trying out work together in small groups to present a short scene.

Last year the student body staged a comedy, "January Thaw," by Wm. Roos, and a child's fantasy "Many Moons," by John Thurber.

Colorfully Dressed Girls Arrive from Hawaiian Isles

By Hiromi "Smiley" Kimizuka

"Aloha Kakou!" (hello everybody). Summer of 1950 has passed and now four Hawaiian girls have arrived on the campus preparing for the school year ahead. When these girls arrived they were hano hano (splendid) in their colorful aloha shirts and beautiful leis of Hawaii lei.

Many of you have already met these girls and they in turn are happy to have received the kind hospitality of the students and citizens of Monmouth.

To students not familiar with the girls they are: Mildred Stason, Pelma Smith, Rita Baker and Betty Clark.

Mildred "Millie" Stason and Pelma "Pam" Smith arrived in Oregon on the Pan-American "Sleep-ette" on September 18. Even though they have no relatives of any sort in Oregon, Pam and Millie decided to attend Oregon College of Education.

Both Millie and Pam attended the Kapaa high school on the "Garden Isle" (Island of Kauai). Kauai is the fourth largest island in the Hawaiian group with its capital being Lihue, Kauai.

The Island of Kauai is called the "Garden Isle" because of its lush natural greenery and beautiful gardens; it is also menehune land, the island richest in menehune lore. The menehunes are sometimes called the pixies, or dwarfs of legendary Hawaii. The legends describe

German Course Offered

An evening extension course in first-year German—with two credit hours each term—will be offered if enough students and faculty members are interested.

Meetings will be held one night a week and the course will cost approximately $10 a term. All people interested in the course should contact Mr. Anton Postl, Adm. 306, at once.

CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM

In recent months, we have been hearing much about the Crusade for Freedom. What is it? It is an organization engaged in fighting one of the most crucial battles in the world today. It has been fighting against the ignorance and falsehoods of the U.S.S.R. and its satellite countries. The Crusade for Freedom supports "Radio Free Europe" located in Frankfurt, Germany. "Radio Free Europe" is engaged in distributing the truth about matters of international importance. It broadcasts the folk music, literature, religion and history of the captive countries—all of which has been banned by the Communists.

On October 16 the students of Oregon College of Education will receive an opportunity to enlist in this crusade by signing the "Freedom Scroll" and, if they are able to do so, to make some small contribution to the Crusade for Freedom. The "Freedom Scroll" is nothing more than a declaration of freedom and our willingness to defend that freedom from tyranny and aggression. The "Freedom Scrolls" will be sent to Berlin, Germany, on October 24 to be enshrined beneath the "Freedom Bell." Our contributions to the "Crusade for Freedom" will be used to support the "Radio Free Europe," so that it may continue to enlighten the enslaved peoples about the fallacies of the Communistic propaganda.

When the opportunity arrives to join this crusade, it should be regarded as a sacred duty to enlist and support this noble and worthy enterprise. In doing so, we shall be doing our bit to defend everything in which we believe. It is little to ask of any AMERICAN!

GROVE QUESTIONNAIRE

What would you like in your annual, The Grove? When The Grove comes out every spring, remarks and criticisms are heard among the students concerning the annual, such as: "Not enough pictures." or "Too much emphasis on a certain section." Therefore the Grove staff is asking you to fill out the questionnaire below, clip it out, and place it in the box which will be provided in the student post office in Campbell hall.

If we know what you want, we will be able to present you with an annual this spring that will please you more.

I would like to see in this year's Grove:

- ☐ More Pictures
☐ More Write-ups
☐ Same as last year

The section I would like to see emphasized is

- ☐ Sports
☐ Activities
☐ Clubs and Organizations
☐ Odds and Ends

Other remarks or suggestions

Sense
and Nonsense

Results of the Associated Men Students' meeting on Tuesday evening, October 3, are as follows: All men students are commanded to put their razors in moth balls until after November 18, which means the girls will have to wait for those good-night kisses from their boy-friends until after Sadie Hawkins' day. There will undoubtedly be some brave girls who will risk getting cut up by the men's whiskers. The Health Service will be open for those who suffer cuts or scratches.

The Lamron staff met Tuesday evening, October 3, in room 110 of Campbell hall for details and further assignments for the school paper. Assignments of offices and reporters were taken care of at this meeting.

The Grove staff met Wednesday evening, October 4, at 7:30 in the Administration building to make staff assignments and future plans for the publishing of the yearbook.

Sigma Epsilon Pi, the women's scholastic honorary on the campus, held a special meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Campbell hall. Pins were purchased and dues collected.

It looks as though fall has fallen, and ended in a big splash, namely—rain. Despite the weather outside, the social spirit around OCE still remains high.

As we look into the crystal ball (the 100-watt light bulb in the Lamron office) we can see both past and future. The filament dims and a second look proves the future to be more exciting. What! Has Mammy Yocum landed on Planet Pincus No. 2? No, it's only the Associated Men students growing beards for the Sadie Hawkins dance to be held in November.

Again the light dims and this time, odd looking creatures are seen wandering through the Grove. They have one arm full of books and the other wrapped around something that resembles a gift. Their clothing is patterned after a style out of this world. Just as we were getting the inside dope on freshman initiation—someone turned out the light and stopped our snooze (light dream).

New Booklet Features
Kindergarten Training

Latest in Oregon College of Education's series of information booklets is one on Kindergarten Training at OCE, just off the University Press in Eugene.

Making extensive use of kindergarten photos made last year by Allen deLay of The Oregonian, the booklet outlines the process of training for this field and the opportunities for preparation at OCE.

It was planned, written and produced by the News Bureau staff, in cooperation with Miss Mildred Kane, supervising teacher in charge of kindergarten training.

Designed to stimulate interest in this area of the teaching profession, the booklet will be distributed to high school vocational advisers, PTA groups, other colleges in Oregon, OCE alumni, and other sources of contact with future teachers in the state.

them as small people "as high as a man's knee" who performed marvelous feats of construction—all in one night.

The Makihana, a berry which grows on a low bush in the Kokee uplands or high on the slopes of Hauapu and nowhere else in the world, is the Kauai symbol in place of a flower. It is interesting to note that every island has its own official flower. The green berry of the Makihana has a distinctive fragrance. It is used with malle vine for lei-making. The official color of Kauai is purple.

If anyone happens to visit or vacation at Kauai, visit Millie and she will be more than happy to show you around the island. As a word of encouragement to students interested in visiting the islands, you will have to go for "seeing is believing"—the Waimea Canyon, Kauai and Poipu beaches, the various Heiau, etc. As Pam puts it, "Kauai is just beautiful, especially my Hawaii Pond."

While enroute to Oregon by air, Millie didn't see anything because she sat toward the center of the aisle. Pam, on the other hand, got the impression that Oregon was dry and disappointing the way it looked from the plane. The trip was nice, although they ran into two thunder storms which didn't bother a bit.

CAMPUS
CHATTER

Homecoming week-end is almost upon us and in less than a week our campus will be buzzing with special activities. Saturday afternoon the football team will give a great performance, and we hope a victory over George Fox will be the grand finale. Then, in the evening, the traditional homecoming dance will be given in the gym. During the week each dorm will be colorfully decorated in competition for the prize. Beautiful mum corsages will be on order throughout the week. It is a time of fun and frolic, so get in the spirit of things now.

§ § § §

Each year new faces are added to our campus and this year we have some unusual names. The owners of some of the beautiful novelty names are Twilo Tabler, from Sweet Home; Drusilla (Drew) Hughson, from Tillamook; Pelma (Pam) Smith, from Hawaii; and D'Anne Barumbaugh, from Gresham—all freshmen. Take a look, fellows, the girls are just as cut as their names!

§ § § §

Whether it is spring or fall, Dan Cupid is still shooting his arrows. His latest hit was Harriet Maling who received her ring a week ago from ———?

§ § § §

"Is the mail in yet?" A familiar question? The other day the mailman brought a special delivery letter to Todd hall for Mildred Stason from Hawaii. It was treated with special care, everyone thinking it contained something of great value. What was it? Just news from home, but valuable to Mildred!

§ § § §

Mrs. McDonald, one of Todd hall's efficient cooks, has just become the proud owner of a horse. Her husband bought a $1.00 chance ticket and Sunday they won a black and white riding horse.

§ § § §

Speaking of horses—I think that I'll check the racing forms—see you next week!

This trip was the longest one that either had ever taken from home.

Both Millie and Pam expected Monmouth to be a small-sized town so it didn't shock them as it did me. They both have "half-tuition" scholarships to OCE. "College is wonderful," as they expressed it, and the people here are so nice and friendly so it isn't too bad being away from home although, they say "there's nothing like good old Kauai." Millie plans to go home during summer but Pam hasn't decided about going home, as yet.

Editor's note: "Smiley" Kimizuka will relate the experiences of Rita Baker and Betty Clark (from the island of Hilo) in the next issue of the Lamron.

crosswalks between the Administration building and Campbell hall. Learn school yells and hymn by Dress-Up Day.

To climax freshman initiation there will be a tug-of-war between the freshmen and the sophomores between halves of the Homecoming football game. Captains will be appointed and they will choose their own team. The captain of the losing team will get a pie in the face from the captain of the winning team. Jack McCrae will supervise the tug-of-war competition.

Grove Available

Extra copies of last year's Grove will be sold during the Homecoming football game. The sales price will be about $3 apiece.

TODD HALL NEWS

Girls returning to Todd hall this fall found it undergoing a real face-lifting. The main stairway has been altered and planning is now in progress for modernization of the music room. The girls are also becoming accustomed to eating meals in shifts, since there are so many new residents this year.

§ § § §

Bunny Walton, vice-president of the dorm, was guest of honor at a party last week. Table four was gaily decorated with orange and black crepe paper and a beaver centerpiece. Since Bunny is now engaged to Harry Green, Delta Upsilon at Oregon State, she ate her traditional pie under the table.

† † † †

One of the third-front girls was treated to a cold shower Wednesday night. This was her penalty for receiving four letters at one time, so let this be a lesson to the rest of you.

† † † †

Quiet hours in the dorm from seven to nine every week night are taking the place of freshmen study tables. So far, this plan has resulted in a combination of New Year's Eve and the Fourth of July, but we are hoping for improvement — or else.

† † † †

This week, attention is being focused on Homecoming — one of the big fall events. Watch for Todd's contribution!

ARNOLD ARMS NEWS

The "Knights of Arnold Arms" held their first meeting of the year Monday evening, October 2, at which time they elected officers and discussed situations concerning the dorm.

Glen Hall was chosen house president. Other officers elected to aid the president in the duties of house management are: Les DeHart, vice-president; Daron Dierks, secretary-treasurer; Harold Briggs, Jr., social chairman; and Eugene Blair, reporter. Mrs. Oma Belle McBee is house mother.

The fellows discussed the "quiet hours" situation and decided that no unruly noise will be permitted after 10 p.m., Sunday through Thursday, and after 12 p.m., Friday and Saturday. The house will be open one night a week to give the men an opportunity to entertain women students. Social Chairman Briggs has announced that tentative plans are being formulated for a faculty reception and a hay ride.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■

Arnold Arms is the home of 36 men students this fall. Although the house walls are bulging for the need of space, the men are making the best of existing conditions. Plans for house improvements in the near future are additions of more adequate electrical facilities and kitchen needs.

WEST HOUSE NEWS

Our dorm council representatives are Marla Berry and Donna Olson. They were elected at our first house meeting.

† † † †

Last week our pride and joy arrived at West house. It's a beautiful brand new refrigerator, so as soon as it is uncrated (you fellows might be interested to know) we will be able to fix welcome evening snacks in the kitchen.

† † † †

Several piercing screams floated through the house Tuesday night, and when we investigated, we found a mascot had adopted us. A skinny yellow cat with a pointed head was walking around as if he owned the place. However, since several girls don't approve of cats, we have un-adopted him.

IVCF Holds Meeting

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship held its first meeting last Monday, in the Monmouth grade school auditorium. The new staff member for the state, Herb Netsch, was the speaker. He spoke on the subject: "Christian Living on the Campus."

Charles Moore led the group of about 45 students in singing several hymns. New officers were announced, replacing several who did not return to school. They are: Lois Ziegenbein, chairman; Mim Haggren, secretary; Lelah Beach and Lois Van Allen, publicity; Joanne Steel, librarian.

Wolf Knights Elect

Wolf Knights, men's service club, held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday evening, October 3. John Snyder was unanimously elected as president. Other officers elected are: Homer Olfert, vice-president; Chas. Humble, secretary-treasurer; and Merlin Marsh, recorder.

Wolf Knights will have charge of Homecoming signs and have offered their services for various other jobs during that big week-end.

Initiation for Wolf Knights will take place within the next few weeks.

BOOKWORM COLUMN

Donald K. Nelson, librarian of Eastern Oregon College of Education, visited the campus October 3 and 4. Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter, Dr. R. J. Maaske, Mr. Nelson, Ellis A. Stebbins and other consultants examined samples of furniture that have been in the library since the beginning of the term.

A decision has been made and orders placed for bleached oak furniture for the new library.

Oregon College of Education was represented by Mrs. Grace Kaufman and Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter at the North Central Oregon workshop in The Dalles on October 2 and 3. The conference was held for teachers of Gilliam, Hood River, Sherman, Wasco, and Wheeler counties.

All OCE bards have been offered an opportunity to have their poems published. The National Poetry Association announces its 7th annual competition of college students' poetry.

The closing date for submission of manuscripts is November 5, 1950. Any student attending either a junior or senior college is eligible to submit his verse. There is no limitation to form or theme; however, shorter verses are preferred by the board of judges due to space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet, and must bear the name and home address of the student, as well as the name of the college attended and the college year. There are no fees or charges for either acceptance or submission of verse. All work will be judged on merit alone.

Manuscripts should be sent to the offices of: National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 34, California.

College Fashions Become Sensible

College girls can take the credit for inspiring at least one of this year's important fashion trends. After looking at collegiate sweater sleeves, top designers have come up with down-to-earth shirt dresses, sleeves pushed up and staying put, and coats with sleeves pushed up worn over sheath dresses with sleeves drawn tight to the wrist. The dresses come in flannel, checked wool and knitted wool. They're snug, they're slim, they're comfortable—they look best on the move and they take a lot of wearing.

Basic sheaths and contrasting cover-ups—the illusion of two dresses for the price of one — dominate the dress-up department. Halter-topped taffetas bowed at the neck are transformed by a velvet jacket into a semi-suit. Sapphire rayon velvet sheaths, open-necked, come with matching jackets. Jacketed, you start out in an informal mood; unjacketed, you're set for cocktails, dancing, or any other semi-formal occasion.

While the accent is on slimness this year in dresses, the good news about coats is that no one shape dominates. It may be the enormous tent falling from sloping shoulders or a trim, fitted reefer, this year velvet collared and cuffed. A revived favorite, designed originally by Mademoiselle, is the Chesterfield, full length or in the new shorter-than-long length.

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of quarterly articles designed to usher in the seasons of fashion change put out by Mademoiselle for all college newspapers.

What a man is means more to his happiness than what he has.

AWS Discuss Plans for Year

A brief Associated Women Students' meeting was held in the Administration building auditorium on Tuesday, October 3, at 7 p.m. Helen Zvarich was elected secretary-treasurer to replace Peggy Neal. President Ruth Frick and Vice-President Joan McBride are the other officers for 1950-51.

Appointment was made of the following committee chairmen for the AWS-sponsored "Sadie Hawkins" dance: Pat Johnson, decorations; Joan Bloedel, publicity, and Lelah Hall, refreshments.

After discussion of plans for the coming year and possible speakers for AWS assemblies, the meeting was adjourned.

AMS Plans Whiskerino

President Ray Godsey called this year's first meeting of the Associated Men Students' organization together Tuesday night, October 3. After the president's short introductory speech, the executive council was introduced. The activities this year were planned. These include a talent show and a whiskerino.

All men who wish to participate in the whiskerino contest will start today growing beards and continue to let them grow until November 18. Prizes will be awarded by the AMS at that date for the reddest beard, the blackest beard, the heaviest beard, and for the one who tried best to grow one and couldn't.

Movie, Dance Featured

Last week-end the entertainment program on campus was a movie, a dance, and a music hour. After the movie, "Brigham Young," an informal dance was enjoyed by students in Maple hall, Saturday evening. The music hour was held at the home of Mrs. F. C. McNelly, 848 North Monmouth avenue, on Sunday evening. Faculty members and students attended.

WARNING!

According to rules set up by Varsity O, all students are required to refrain from wearing high school varsity letters while attending OCE. Cooperation of all students will be greatly appreciated by Varsity O.

Grove Plans Start, New Staff Chosen

The Grove, OCE student annual publication, had its first staff meeting on October 4 in room 117 of the Administration building at 7:30 p.m.

The staff has been partially organized with the following students in various positions: Joan Bloedel and Shirley Peterson, co-editors; Molly Jo Rowe, business manager; Smiley Kimizuka and Lenore Lund, assistant managers; Jim Spear, photographer; Doris Lohrke and Curtis Shamate, assistants; Charlotte Church, classes; Alta Hadley, literary; Eugene Blair, faculty; Iris Thompson, activities editor for the fall term; Byron Hindman, athletics; Jim Elliott, Pat Keep, Leonard Milligan and Donna O'Rourke, art; Marilyn Dixon, secretary.

Faculty advisers for the Grove are as follows: Mark Sayre, business; Miss Joan Seavey, literary and Miss Sylvia Claggett, art.

Several other positions are still open and anyone interested in working on the annual should leave a note in Shirley Peterson's or Joan Bloedel's mail box.

Dramatics Club Gets Late Start

Crimson O, dramatics club, is getting a late start this year. Apologies are extended to all who have been patiently waiting.

A special meeting has been called for Wednesday, October 11, in room 110 of Campbell hall at 6:30 p.m. Purpose of this meeting is to elect new officers, discuss the adoption of a new constitution, and make plans for the coming year. This meeting will be of special interest to new and prospective members. All old members are urged to be there.

Practice Starts For Hoop Season

This season's basketball practice was started last Monday, October 2, with many hopeful aspirants turning out at this first practice session.

Although the squad is lacking the expert ball-handling of last year's graduates—lettermen Chuck Hogan, Marv Hiebert and Harold Smith—compensation can be found in this year's returning lettermen—Harold Pitcher, Chuck Humble, Bruce Moorhead, and Bob Bushnell—and from the junior varsity—Leonard Staudinger, Charles Pinion, and Tom Thayer.

Basketball was started early this season due to the lack of returning lettermen. The month of October will be devoted primarily to individual instruction under the direction of Coach Robert Knox.

The guards will be as strong or stronger than last year; however, the lack of forwards may be a problem. One of the prospective candidates for a forward berth is Dewey Herbert, freshman. The experience of last season's center, Harold Pitcher, might be utilized in a forward position also.

Our schedule of games this year includes Seattle university. Last year's rival, Seattle Pacific college, will be omitted in this year's schedule to afford our inclusion of Seattle U. Although the complete schedule is not completed, our first game will probably be shortly after Thanksgiving.

WAA To Meet Thursday

Girls, would you like two evenings a week of good exercise as well as loads of fun? Attend Women's Athletic Association every Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8 o'clock in the gym. Such sports as volleyball, basketball, badminton, softball, tennis, hiking, bicycling, and square and folk dancing, will be presented during the coming year. Sweaters with the black "O" letter will be presented on the point system to any girl who fulfills the requirements. Any woman can become a member of WAA simply by paying 25 cent dues per year. Let's have fun and keep our figures slim. See you at WAA!

OCE Cross-Country Team Has Workout

Anyone who is interested in participating in cross-country racing is asked to contact Coach Bill McArthur, or the cross-country captain, Keith Holdorf.

A new course of cross-country racing has been set up by the physical education department, and team members are now working out.

The first meet in which the team will compete will be in the third annual college and university cross-country run. This will be held at Portland university on November 17 at 4 p.m.

Students Attend Rubinstein Concert

About a dozen OCE students attended a concert by the famous pianist, Artur Rubinstein last Tuesday evening at the Salem high school. A capacity crowd attended the concert, sponsored by the associated students of Willamette U. Mr. Rubinstein's program consisted of selections by Bach-Busoni, Chopin, Debussy, Grandos, and Liszt. It is hoped that Willamette will sponsor other concerts of this high calibre in the future available to students at lowered prices.

Men Receive Orders

Six OCE Wolf gridsters have received orders from their local draft boards to report for their physical examinations. Topping the list was Robin Lee, star halfback of the OCE varsity. Others receiving their notices were: Lyle Hay and Tom Hill, ends; LeRoy Coleman, quarterback; and Verne Hart, fullback. Marvin Way of the frosh squad was the sixth man to get his notice.

Swimming Starts

Twenty OCE students made the first big splash at the OSC pool in Corvallis Wednesday evening. It was the first scheduled swim of the year and it will be followed by many more. Watch the school activity calendar and bulletin boards for the next one. It's loads of fun and you are sure to have a good time.

The young wife greeted her husband affectionately when he returned home from the office.

"Poor darling!" she said. "You must be hungry. Would you like some nice soup, tender chops with golden brown potatoes and green peas, and mushrooms on toast?"

"No, my dear," her husband replied, "let's save the money and eat at home!"

SPORTS PARADE

The final turn of the dippy-doodle National League pennant race, came when the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-1 last Saturday.

Dick Sisler, son of one of baseball's all-time greats (George Sisler, now head Brooklyn scout), earned the respect of the baseball world by slamming out a three-run homer in Ebbets Field, Sunday afternoon. Sisler's homer in the 10th inning, won for Philadelphia its first pennant in 35 years. It was a pitcher's duel all the way, with Rookie Phil pitcher, Robin Roberts allowing only five hits to 11 hits battered off veteran Don Newcombe.

The game might have ended with a Dodger victory in the bottom of the ninth inning if Philly outfielder Richie Ashburn had not made the play of the game by throwing out Cal Abrams at home from center-field. Ashburn made a one-handed scoop of Duke Snider's well-tabbed hit, and threw it to teammate Stan Copat, to make the put-out on Abrams who was trying to score. There no doubt will be much discussion in Brooklyn, as to coaching ability of the third base coach, for a long time. Had Abrams been safe at home, and broken the 1-1 tie for the victory, he probably could have claimed himself mayor of the borough, but as it turned out, I doubt whether he could get a job as dog-catcher in Flatbush. It was in the 10th inning that young Sisler belted out the three-run home run, to give

Groz Glockner, Austria's highest mountain.

Before returning to Liverpool, Mr. Postl spent several days sightseeing in Paris and in London. He visited the Museum of Science and Geology, and saw Watt's original steam engine, among many other interesting and historical items. He attended a Philharmonic concert and a production of Captain Carvallo by Lawrence Olivier. Mr. Postl dined with Miss Alice Pendlebury in Manchester. Many of us will remember that Miss Pendlebury was an exchange teacher here last year in the art department. Mr. Postl was shown the school where Miss Sylvia Claggett, our exchange teacher, taught last year.

Homeward bound, the boat from Liverpool to Montreal was delayed by heavy seas. His journey across the country was made by train from Montreal to Detroit and Chicago, and by plane from Chicago to Portland. Mr. Postl was met in Portland by his family and R. E. Lieualen.

Mr. Postl says that conditions in Austria are generally better than when he was there before. This betterment is due right now to American help through the Marshall Plan. Their political structure is unsound, and the inflation spiral which is their present source of unrest is being exploited by the Communists, he stated.

Part of Austria is occupied by Russia and all of it is threatened. While Mr. Postl had no actual contact with the Russians, he came within 10 miles of the "Iron Curtain" in an area that had been occupied by the Russians during the war.

Paris impressed Mr. Postl as beautiful but expensive, the people being extremely opportunistic. His impressions of England in general were excellent.

Manager Eddie Sawyer and his White Kids the 1950 National league pennant, and the privilege of playing in the world series.

Shibe Park in Philadelphia was the scene of the opening game of the 1950 word series between A. L. champs, the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Phillies, winners of the National League. Thirty-two thousand fans were on hand to witness Vic Raschi's 1-0 shut-out of the Phils. Raschi allowed only two hits, while Phil's starter, Jim Konstanty, permitted four Yankee base hits. Although Konstanty had pitched in 74 games this year, this was the first game in which he received the starting assignment. He pitched an excellent game for eight innings, when he was finally relieved by Russ Meyer.

The lone Yankee tally was scored by third baseman Bobby Brown. His double led off the fourth inning. He advanced to third on a long fly ball to center field and scored on another long fly hit by Jerry Coleman to deep left field.

The second and third games were identical as to the winning team. Pitching was at its peak in these two games. In the second game Robin Roberts made a mistake of pitching to the great Yankee Clipper, Joe Dimaggio. Joltin' Joe blasted one 400 feet into the left-field stands in the 10th frame to break up the pitching duel between Allie Reynolds and Robin Roberts for the second win of the series for the Yanks. The score was 2-1.

It was Coleman again, in the third series game, who pulled the World Champions through. In the bottom

Freshman Squad Is Looking Good

Coach Bill McArthur has again assembled a freshman football squad. Two games have been scheduled to date. The first game is with the Linfield college frosh on Monday, October 16, and the second contest is with the Reed college varsity the following week. More games will be scheduled as the season progresses.

Last week some freshmen saw action against SOCE. Because of their fine showing a few are slated to start against George Fox college on Homecoming day.

Two boys who have shown special promise are Wally Kent, quarterback from Long Beach Wilson high, and "Backy" Diever, halfback from Powers. Both of them were outstanding in high school and one year of freshman ball will ripen them for the varsity in the future.

Other impressive players who will be starters during the regular season are: Marvin Way from Lexington and Ken Englehart from Colton, ends; Emil Perkins from Knappa, tackle; Bud Gould from Lebanon and Arnold Sittser from Harrisburg, guards; Bob Gordon from Salem, center; Max Elder from Shedd and Blackman from Salem, halfbacks.

of the ninth he sliced a double into left center-field scoring Gene Woodling for the winning run. Coleman was instrumental in all three of the Yankee tallies. His single in the third brought home "Scooter" Rizzuto, and in the eighth he scored the tying run, after being walked by starting pitcher Heintzleman. Relief pitcher Ferrick got the credit for the win while Meyers was given the loss. Final score was 3-2.
